WILLIAM GLADYS

(BILL) KIRK

The Ancient History of the Distinguished Surname

* KIRK ****

Though shrouded by the mists of time, the chronicles of Scotland reveal the early records of the Norman surname Kirk which ranks as one of the oldest. The history of the name is interwoven within the colourful plaid of Scottish history and is an intrinsic part of the heritage of Scotland.

Diligent analysis by professional researchers using such ancient manuscripts as the Domesday Book (compiled in 1086 by William the Conqueror), the Ragman Rolls, the Wace poem, the Honour Roll of the Battel Abbey, the Inquisitio, the Curia Regis, Pipe Rolls, the Falaise Roll, tax records, baptismals, family genealogies, and local parish and church records shows the first record of the name Kirk was found in Cumberland where they were seated from very early times and were granted lands by Duke William of Normandy, their liege Lord, for their distinguished assistance at the Battle of Hastings in 1066 A.D.

Variable spellings of the name were typically linked to a common root, usually one of the Norman nobles at the Battle of Hastings. Your name, Kirk, occurred in many references from time to time, and variables included were Kirk, Kirkhoe, Kirkaugh, Kirko, Kirkoe, and many more. Scribes recorded and spelled the name as it sounded. It was not unlikely that a person would be born with one spelling, married with another, and buried with a headstone which showed another. Preferences for different spellings were derived from a branch preference, to indicate a religious adherence or sometimes to show nationalistic allegiance.

The family name Kirk is believed to be descended originally from the Norman race. The Normans were commonly believed to be of French origin but were, more accurately, of Viking origin. The Vikings landed in the Orkneys and Northern Scotland about the year 870 A.D., under their King, Stirgud the Stout. Later, under their Jarl, Thorfinn Rollo, they invaded France about 940 A.D. The French King, Charles the Simple, after Rollo laid siege to Paris, finally conceded defeat and granted northern France to Rollo. Rollo became the first Duke of Normandy. Duke William who invaded and defeated England in 1066, was descended from the first Duke Rollo of Normandy.

After the Conquest, Duke William took a census of most of England in 1086, it became known as the Domesday Book. By 1070, William's nobles were growing restive, dissatisfied with their grants of land. William took an army north, and laid waste most of the northern counties. King Malcolm Canmore of Scotland offered refuge to these nobles, granting them land. Later, King David, about 1160, also encouraged his Norman friends to come north to join the royal court and obtain lands.

The surname Kirk emerged as a notable Scottish family name in the county of Cumberland where they were recorded as a family of great antiquity seated with manor and estates in that shire. The original name Kirkhaugh was acquired by the Vipont, a noble family which came from Vipont near Lisieux in Normandy. In 1258 William of Kirkhaugh assumed that name and the lands and estates. They moved north into Scotland to the lands of Tuchadam and Chappel in the barony of Dunscore in Dumfriesshire. They later acquired the lands of Holywood and they intermarried with the Griersons of Barjarg and the name became shortened to Kirk and Kirke. Some branches of the name retained the name Kirkhoe. Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth had moved north and by 1600 even further north to Inveraray. They were registered as a border Clan in 1590 and in 1597. Of note amongst the family at this time was Sir Patrick Kirk of Perth.

The surname Kirk contributed much to local politics and in the affairs of England or Scotland. Later, in the 16th, 17th and 18th centuries the country was ravaged by religious and political conflict. The Monarchy, the Church and Parliament fought for supremacy. The unrest caused many to think of distant lands.

Settlers in Ireland became known as the "Adventurers for land in Ireland". Essentially, they "undertook" to keep the Protestant faith, and became known as "the Undertakers". In Ireland they were numerous in Ulster and county Louth and in the former became known as the Quirkes.

The news about the attractions of the New World spread like wildfire. Many sailed aboard the fleet of sailing ships known as the "White Sails".

In North America, migrants which could be considered kinsmen of the surname Kirk, or variable spellings of that same family name included Christopher and Judith Kirk settled in Virginia in 1635; Grafton Kirk settled in Maryland in 1738; John Kirk settled in New England in 1698; James Kirke settled in Virginia in 1656; Christopher Kirke settled in the Barbados in 1663; Richard and John Kirke settled in Virginia in 1651; Thomas Kirke settled in Virginia in 1638.

From the port of arrival many settlers joined the wagon trains westward. During the American War of Independence some declared their loyalty to the Crown and moved northward into Canada and became known as the United Empire Loyalists.

Meanwhile, the family name was noted in the social stream. There were many notables of this name, Kirk, Grayson Kirk, American Professor; Peter Kirk, British Journalist; Roger Kirk, American Diplomat; Russell Kirk, American Writer; Samuel Kirk, American Professor of Education; Dame Lucy Kirk; Alexander Kirk, U.S. Ambassador; Professor Geoffrey Kirk, Greek; Hon. Herbert Kirk, Northern Ireland Politician.

In the process of researching this distinguished family name we also traced the most ancient grant of Arms from the branches which developed their own Arms.

The most ancient grant of a Coat of Arms found was:

Red with a gold crozier crossed with a gold sword and at the top a green thistle.

The Crest was:

A crozier and a dagger crossed.

The ancient family Motto for this distinguished name was:

"Optimum Quod Primum"

Additional Information:

William G. (Bill) Kirk

William Gladys (Bill) Kirk was the third child of Henry Benton and Alice Pearl (Cruse) Kirk, a grandson of William B. and Amanda (Hudson) Kirk, and a great-grandson of Henry and Harriet Kirk. He was born at Nevada, Texas on November 23, 1910.

William G. (Bill) Kirk lived in numerous locations while his family tried to get bigger and better pieces of land. He lived in Collin and Hunt Counties in Texas before moving further west in 1924 when they moved on to Paducah, Texas where his family eventually settled. On the move west, Bill Kirk, our father, drove the team, "Old Rock" and "Jack".

At about this time Bill and his younger sister, Lucille, started to school again. Bill hated it so much that he played hookey most of the time. His mother, Pearl Kirk, told him that if he wasn't going to school, he was going to work so Bill quit school and worked full time unloading 100 pound sacks of coal and feed from boxcars onto wagons. Bill was 14 at the time.

Bill went to work for Mr. Hohl at the Underhill Construction Company and helped build the court house at Paducah, Texas. He also climbed out on a long pole and helped guide the statues on top into place. While he was working on the court house, Mr. Hohl had a job starting in Ardmore, Oklahoma. Mr. Hohl wanted Bill to move there and work for him again. Bill and Jewel wanted to get married so Mr. Hohl said that he would get them tickets to a dance at the Elks Club in Ardmore and they could get married in Oklahoma. Bill and Jewel didn't have a car that would make it that far so they rode with Lucille Kirk, Jack Hohl, and Jack's mother to Ardmore where they obtained the license and got married. Sure enough, Mr. Hohl had got them tickets to the Elks dance and they celebrated their wedding at the Elks.

William G (Bill) Kirk married Jewel Agnes Applegate on April 19, 1930 at Ardmore, Oklahoma.

Bill and Jewel spent the night at Ardmore and returned to Paducah where Bill helped complete the court house which took about three more weeks. They helped Bill's dad, Benton, on his farm and in June Bill and Jewel sold a calf for $12.00 to raise money for Bill to go to Wichita, Kansas and work. Jewel did not go with him but followed as soon as they earned the money for train fare. Jewel was so small that the conductor didn't believe she was married but thought she was running away from home. He didn't let her out of his sight until the train stopped and then the conductor had a redcap take her to the information desk until the train loaded up again for the rest of the trip. Upon arrival at Wichita he put Jewel in a cab and told the driver where to take her.

When the job was completed in Wichita, Kansas, Bill worked on the John Sealy Hospital in Galveston, Texas and made fifty cents an hour. After the hospital was completed, they offered him a job in Cuba at $1.00 an hour but he turned it down and they returned to Paducah by Christmas time. This all took place during the depression and times were very hard. Jobs were scarce and everyone was really upset that Bill had turned down a job making $1.00 an hour. Bill was satisfied being in the United States and did not want to leave his country.

Bill found a job doing ranch work on the Richard Ranch at Paducah. It was on the Richard Ranch that Bill roped a coyote to take one home and show Jewel. Just about the time he got it home, the horse jumped a gully, the rope went slack and the coyote got away.

On February 12, 1934, Sherry Lavon Kirk, the oldest daughter of Bill & Jewel Kirk, was born. On January 26, 1937, along came Lavillas Ann Kirk, their second daughter. Along about this time, Bill was working for J E Norris who owned Norris Furniture Store in Paducah. Bill was in charge of the cattle on Mr. Norris' ranch. He also did what he needed to do to help Mr. Norris at the furniture store.

On October 18, 1938, William G. (Bill) Kirk, the third child and only son was born. Jackey Raye Kirk, the third daughter came along on June 30, 1940 and this completed the Bill Kirk family. All were members of the Missionary Baptist Church of Paducah, Texas.

On December 7, 1943, at the age of thirty-three and with four children, Bill was inducted into the military at Lubbock, Texas. He served as a Private First Class in the 514th Field Artillery Battalion in the U S Army. His Army specialty was Cannoneer and he was their #1 Sharpshooter. He served until the citizens of Paducah obtained his honorable discharge. Citizens wrote stating that Bill was too valuable a man serving his country while at Paducah. Discharge papers state, "Honorably discharged by reason of Covenant of Government, (Importance to National health, safety or interest), Section X on September 9, 1944."

Bill owned a section of land between Paducah and Childress, Texas, along the South Pease River, where he kept cattle. He was also Sheriff of Paducah, Texas, for four years. During his term in the Sheriff's office, Bill hurt himself throwing 100 lb. sacks of feed over a fence to his cattle. He struggled to finish feeding, and drove himself fifteen miles back to town before seeking medical attention. He had slipped a bone in his hip. He was in the hospital a long time.

Also during his term in office, Bill was brought home from a cattle auction at Amarillo with a 107 temperature. When he was admitted to the hospital at Wichita Falls, Texas, they said he had a germ of the typhoid fever type and put him in quarantine. They also said that his heart was a third larger than it should have been and that he would never live to see the grass turn green, but Bill fooled them. He did come home.

According to his military papers, Bill was six feet three inches in height, had blue eyes, brown hair and a ruddy complexion. He had type "AB" blood. Bill was an extremely handsome man. He also was as strong as an ox, tough as shoe leather, and had more pride than ten men needed.

Bill bought a load of hogs that had cholera and had to be destroyed. Things just seemed to go down hill from there. On July 12, 1952, the Kirks moved to Lubbock, Texas and hard times really hit them. Grandmother and Papa (Benton and Pearl Kirk) still lived at Paducah; Sherry had already married; Ann married in April of 1955; Bill married in December of 1955; Jackey married shortly thereafter.

Bill never recovered his health or his financial position. He could not seem to get back into making money again; he just seemed to give up. During the 60's and 70's, Bill had a number of medical problems. He was confined to a wheelchair. One leg was amputated and the other one was paralyzed. His right arm was also paralyzed. Any place the skin was hurt, it ulcerated due to lack of circulation. It was a struggle just to keep the ulcers healed.

In the Veterans Hospital at Houston, Bill had his gall bladder removed on Monday. He made it through surgery so well that they didn't even put him in intensive care although he was 71 years old. He made it fine all through Tuesday and Wednesday without too much discomfort. On Wednesday night he made plans with his daughter, Ann, as to what he wanted to do when they dismissed him from the hospital.

Bill wanted to take one more trip. He wanted to go home with Ann (in Houston) because Jewel was there, go to Arkansas and see his son, Bill, and his daughter, Jackey, go on to Oklahoma and see his sister, Ollie, swing through Childress, Texas and see Jewel's aunt, Dora Bohannon, on to Paducah to see his old friends, to Midland and Odessa to see Sherry and Jewel's sister, Ladell, who he had raised as a child, and back to Lubbock where he lived. He made so many plans and spoke so much about how proud he was of his family.

Instead of having his trip that he planned, his final trip was by ambulance to Paducah where he was laid to rest in the Garden of Memories Cemetery, Paducah, Cottle County, Texas. He died Thursday morning, May 20, 1982. He is buried adjacent to his parents, Henry Benton and Alice Pearl (Cruse) Kirk.

Jewel Agnes (Applegate) Kirk

Jewel Agnes Applegate was born on September 8, 1909 at Paducah, Cottle County, Texas.

Jewel was the second daughter of Leslie Marion Applegate and Epsie Vester Downing Applegate, and a granddaughter to Fieldon Hawk Applegate and Mary Mitchell Cannon Applegate and a granddaughter to James Thomas Downing and Alice Izora Preston Downing.

Leslie Marion Applegate was born on February 18, 1883 at Arlington, Tarrant County, Texas. His father was Fieldon Hawk Applegate who was born March 1, 1849 in Green County, Kentucky and who died on March 4, 1919 at Munday, Knox County, Texas. He is buried at Gillespie Cemetery. His mother was Mary Mitchell Cannon who was born in Alabama on October 22, 1861. She died May 27, 1909 at Munday, Knox County, Texas and is also buried at Gillespie Cemetery.

Epsie Vester Downing Applegate was born February 2, 1889 at Bibb, Commanche County, Texas. She died on July 20, 1939 at Paducah, Cottle County, Texas and is buried at the Garden of Memories Cemetery. Her father was James Thomas Downing who was born June 17, 1863 at Tupelo, Mississippi and who died April 15, 1940 at Paducah, Cottle County, Texas. He is buried at Garden of Memories Cemetery, Paducah. Her mother was Alice Izora Preston Downing who was born on February 4, 1873 at Hopkins County, Texas. She died on September 30, 1963 at Paducah, Texas and is also buried in the Garden of Memories Cemetery.

Leslie M. Applegate and Epsie V. Downing were married on October 28, 1906 at Noodles, Jones County, Texas. Leslie's parents, Fieldon H. Applegate and Mary Mitchell Cannon, were married in 1879. Epsie's parents, James T. Downing and Alice Izora Preston were married January 12, 1888 at Cumby, Hopkins County, Texas.

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Saturday, April 19th, Mr. W. G. Kirk and Miss Jewell Applegate were united in marriage by Rev. Martin of Ardmore. Jack Hohl and Miss Lucille Kirk, accompanied by Mrs. Hohl were in Ardmore and witnessed the ceremony.

Mr. Kirk is the son of H. B. Kirk of Buck Creek and his wife is the daughter of Mr. L. M. Applegate of Dunlap.

After the ceremony the young people were entertained by going to a dance where everyone enjoyed themselves wonderfully.

The young married couple will make their home in Paducah for a while, and their many friends of Cottle County wish them all possible joy, and prosperity through the coming years.

Birthday Wishes
FOR MOTHER

Looking backward from today,
As we always do,
May glad memories convey
Happiness to you.
Looking forward may you see
Days of joy and cheer,
And may all the years to be
Bless you, Mother Dear.

Dear Sweetheart Darling Baby:

I am so sorry I might Fool I didn't Write Last night
Had a Bull and Was Mad I didn't Get a Letter to day But I Got the next
Hungry and I Sure Was Proud to Get Them Well We didn't Do Much Today
Had a Fair Meal Here Tonight But
I didn't do anything But Work
Well it is Raining Cats & Dogs in Deer Rain Must Put Work in
I Look to Get to Stand Next Week
Work Well We Got used to What We do Monday I don't Mean what I Write
But I Wish I Was Just Now Married &
the used to something like We Was
Be at the Same Work We Work a
Fishing and Truck Driving I Took I
Sure Be a Truck Driving Fool I Did
But for Be a Summer Boy In a Farm
Big Fun. Well Sat Jan 23 I Should
To Night I Started To Go Over The Last Few Sentences But I Was Called
Out To Get Some Spuds Now I

Over the Pond This is a Pretty Big Place
I Wish When You Come We Could Have A Car To Look Around In as Well The Roads Covers a Real Large Place Don't You Come Quickly I Get So Blue When
Days Pass and I Don't Hear
From You Write Soon Dear as Soon as
You Receive This Letter Please Write
When You Will Be Due I Will Be Waiting
To Go and Get You Dear
Well Ken it Is Our Last Letter Home For
You as We Are Going Into Action Also I Hope
You Are Getting Used to Not Getting Any of Us
Mail if We Can That is a Real Task in Time Like to Write the World Can't Prevent
Some One Writing Home I Can See We Will Have a Letter to Each Body I Will Do Something But I Hope For
Well I Got To Write My Parents So Must Close
And I Will Write You a Long Letter
I Wrote You a Letter Every Day on Our
Sailing a Letter Each Day Before Sailing
Here To Day and I am Feeling Quite Well Wishing You Best Of Luck

Dear Jack and Gladys -

Have to keep all to night I am a Card Setting a Good Watching Day Britt Will. Well it just stood Retait We Had a Time Getting the Mutants to Fall Ready and then we Turned Wind Eight Miles and Eight Wash Balls and a Band Fifty Men to use Them Fun Think Just Worst a Scramble But We All Made it All Write

Well We Got our Pay this afternoon I got Two Dollars and Eighty Cents ($2.80) that Was a Pretty Good Month Pay Jensen got 5 Cents More than I did His Insurance Wasn't as Much as Mine I Ask him What He Was Taking apart It. Got it in cash We are Going out and Shoot our Rifles to Morrow I Hope I can Make as Good Score as I did Before We are Going to Get our Big Guns Next Week but I am Getting it down Pretty Good

Better than a Lot of Them We Will
Have to Work Tomorrow Night
Until Eleven o'clock Well They
Are Going to Give us a Bean Party
Not Milk But I don't Guess I Will Go I Reckon Go to the Last One
They are Feeding us Pretty Good
Now Since they Assined us to our Work Yesterday I Just Talk to our Sargin and I Ask Him if He Just
We Would Be Here Very Long and
He Said We Would and I Begin
When You Come in the Packet
And Have it Passed Before You
Leave Here and Have Yu Write
Pearl Sunday and Not Mine to Late and You Could Make it Pretty
Well and But in Plenty of Time
Then Before You Leave I Dont Know
What Would Happen if You

Yat in a Big Snow Between Them and Hull Cause Yat Country
Gets Cold it Was 23 Below Zero on Friday When We come Thru There and That is Plenty Cold
I dont Know How Fur Could Yat Drive
Her With out a Way to Go Fur Outdoors
Hardlie Doin Here Fur Ant Miss
Jonson Could come up Fur and it Wouldn Cost But a Bit of Fur What it Would Cost One of Fur One Yat Train But dont Drive at Night
if Fur Could Get Boys Out Some one to come and drive Fur Fur
Would Be a Fat Better Fur all
My Gums is Getting Sore Again
But I am Not Going to the Hospital
As Long as I Can Get it Well
Fenton Come up to See me Wont
You Go to the Pict and Get Some Magic
I Guss it Will Be Fast Night

We Will Be off Our Work Will Home I Sure Wish I Could B With Ju to Night Would Ju Come in Ur Pickup Ju Bitter Get Some
Extry Gas Stamps Before Ju
Leave Home Cause Ju Can't Get Them Ju Will Hurry I Will Close Jensen is Walking Up
Floor I Am Sure Proud He is
With Me We Are Making it
all Write I Just Received two Letters from Ju to day Just Keep Writing them Cause Ju
Don't Now How Much it Helps to Hear from Ju With Love and Kiss
From the Home Bill

Cottle/King History

History and news items are taken from Carmen Bennett's "Our Roots Grow Deep", King County "Windmills & Barbed Wire" or past files of the Paducah Post. By Mary A. Clark

(60 yrs. ago - Taken from the Paducah Post files, June 1949)

With hail stones as big as silver dollars falling here in town and some as large as apples, in the Salt Creek and Hackberry Communities, plus considerable wind and rain, Tuesday afternoon, heavy damage to wheatlands and row crops resulted to sections of Cottle County.

On the Raymon Long farm, a two-room house and garage were blown away and trees were uprooted. Mrs. and Mrs. Raymon Long, Sherril Kay, Mrs. A.O. Bennett, Rebecca Kay and Kenneth Ray Mitchell who were caught at the Long farm at the time the storm struck, sought refuge in the cellar.

The Ridin' and Ropin' Jamboree, sponsored by the Paducah Roping Club, was presented Friday evening with six major events.

The calf scramble had some 24 lads under fifteen years of age. In the potato race, Harold Felts placed first, Elmer Petty second, and Hershel Stone, third. In the musical chair race, featuring boys 6 - 15, Don Brothers won that event. Elmer Petty won the event for adults.

With Ribbon Roping and Jackpot Roping, there was an evening "chocked-full" of entertainment.

Work is progressing nicely on the 30x50 stucco building just south of the Armstrong Grocery, which will house Paducah's exclusive sporting goods store.

A.L. Jones, who will own and operate the unique business for this section of the country, will handle all kinds of sporting goods, boats, fishing equipment, etc.

Bob Wills and the Texas Playboys will play a one-night stand here Friday night, June 24, in the Veterans Memorial Building, under the auspices of the American Legion and V.F.W. Posts.

A deal was consummated this week whereby Will Stubbs and Don Ballard became the owners of the Swint Brothers Grocery, the change in ownership to become effective as of July 1.

Swint Brothers, one of the oldest grocery establishments in Paducah, has been in operation here for the past 35 years and during that time Jess, Albert, Arlie, Fred, Walter and Leslie Swint have carried on the "family enterprise".

Sheriff Bill Kirk and his staff are making it "plenty hot" on possessors of liquor and punch board operators. Sheriff Kirk states he is "clamping down" on punch board operators and if a punch board is found in a place of business, even though it is not being operated, he is going to pick it up and assess a heavy fine against the possessor.

****

Dispite the fact farmers have been fighting back, the county faces one of the worst grasshopper plagues in years. Many farmers have been "hitting" the fields at 4:00 o'clock in the mornings scattering poison around turn-rows and fence rows, in an effort to check the hoppers.

Under the cemetery fence project, sponsored by the Sorosis Club, a committee met Tuesday evening and decided the cemetery would not be complete without a name.

Mrs. J. M. Barron, as pioneer sponsor of the cemetery association, was consulted and the name: "Garden of Memories" was decided upon.

Mrs. Barron has contributed her time and efforts to the cemetery association, without thought of financial gain for some 47 years for which everyone concerned is grateful.

The cemetery association was organized in 1907 with Judge J.H. Doolen as Chairman.

NATIONAL
WORLD WAR II
MEMORIAL

General Fred F. Woerner, USA (Ret)

January 15, 2001

Ms. Sherry Kirk Jones
1110 Wilshire Dr.
Roanoke, TX 76262-5447

Dear Ms. Jones:

On behalf of the National World War II Memorial campaign, I am proud to enclose your official 2001 Charter Membership Card.

As I'm sure you know by now, we were finally able to break ground for the Memorial at a formal ceremony on Veterans Day, November 11, 2000.

It was a historic moment and a gratifying one for me and everyone involved with this project. We have you and your fellow Charter Members to thank for making that day possible.

The President of the United States spoke, as well as Senator Bob Dole, actor Tom Hanks and many other prominent Americans who have put an extraordinary amount of effort into the campaign. On a glorious fall afternoon, the event was attended by over 12,000 Americans, including thousands of World War II veterans and their families.

I want to take a moment to express my appreciation to you for the generous support you have given to help us build the National World War II Memorial. Without you, this Memorial would not become a reality.

Actual construction of the Memorial, which is scheduled to begin shortly, is estimated to take over two years, with a goal of formally dedicating it in 2003.

Today, I hope you will accept your Charter Membership Card and renew your support for 2001 by sending a contribution of $20.

As a Charter Member of the World War II Memorial Society,

(Over, please)

American Battle Monuments Commission
P.O. Box 96766 • Washington, D.C. 20090-6766

your name will be forever linked with the historic effort to honor those who fought and won World War II.

Over 50 years ago, young men and women from all walks of life answered the call when Pearl Harbor was savagely attacked. They also stepped forward to lead the fight against Adolf Hitler and the Nazis who were bent on world domination.

On the home front, people of all ages came together as never before to support our soldiers abroad. From the largest cities to the smallest towns, ordinary Americans were doing extraordinary things every day.

Our victory in World War II was truly a national effort and it will always be the defining event of the 20th century.

America now recognizes that the members of the World War II generation deserve their own Memorial. Thanks to you, future generations will not forget their sacrifices.

So whether you are a veteran yourself, someone who lived through that era, or just someone who wants to acknowledge the debt we all owe to those who helped win World War II, please maintain your support of the Memorial for 2001.

Your contribution today will help us ensure that the needs of the Memorial are met now and in the future.

With your help, we're building a Memorial that will stand for all time in tribute to the "greatest generation."

Sincerely,

Fred F. Woerner

General Fred F. Woerner, USA (Ret)
Chairman
American Battle Monuments Commission

P.S. Many thanks for your help in getting us through groundbreaking and on the road to construction. I'm counting on every one of our Members to keep our momentum going in 2001.

Authorization

President Clinton signed Public Law 103-32 on May 25, 1993, authorizing the Battle Monuments Commission (ABMC) to establish a World War II Memorial Washington, D.C., or its environs. It will be the first national memorial dedic who served during World War II and acknowledging the commitment and acl the entire nation.

Purpose

The memorial will honor the 16 million who served in the armed forces of the World War II, the more than 400,000 who died, and the millions who suppor effort from home. Symbolic of the defining event of the 20th Century, the m be a monument to the spirit, sacrifice, and commitment of the American peo common defense of the nation and to the broader causes of peace and freed tyranny throughout the world. It will inspire future generations of Americans their appreciation of what the World War II generation accomplished in secu and democracy. Above all, the memorial will stand as an important symbol o national unity, a timeless reminder of the moral strength and awesome powe flow when a free people are at once united and bonded together in a commo cause.

Site

The first step in establishing the memorial was the selection of an appropriate site. Congress provided legislative authority for siting the memorial in the prime area of the national capital, known as Area I, which includes the National Mall. The National Park Service, the Commission of Fine Arts, and the National Capital Planning Commission approved selection of the Rainbow Pool site at the east end of the Reflecting Pool between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument. President Clinton dedicated the memorial site during a formal ceremony on Veterans Day 1995.

Design

ABMC engaged the General Services Administration's (GSA) Public Buildings as its agent to manage the memorial project. The design submitted by Friedı an architect based in Providence, R.I., was selected as one of six semi-finalis national competition. Leo A Daly, an international architecture firm, assembl winning team with St.Florian as the design architect. The team also includes Hartman of Hartman-Cox Architects, Oehme van Sweden & Associates, and ; Kaskey. St.Florian's memorial design concept was approved by the Commiss Arts and the National Capital Planning Commission in the summer of 1998. T commissions approved the preliminary design in 1999, the final architectural several ancillary elements in 2000, granite selections in 2001, and sculpture inscriptions in 2002 and 2003.

Fund-raising Campaign

The memorial is funded primarily by private contributions. The fund-raising c led by National Chairman Senator Bob Dole and National Co-Chairman Frede

Senator Dole, a World War II veteran seriously wounded on the battlefield ai decorated with the Bronze Star and Purple Heart, was the Republican nomin president in 1996 and the longest-serving Republican Leader in the U.S. Sen

Frederick W. Smith is chairman, president and chief executive officer of FedE Corporation, a $17 billion global transportation and logistics holding compan graduate of Yale and a former U.S. Marine Corps officer, and serves on the b various transport, industry and civic organizations.

The memorial received more than $195 million in cash and pledges. This tot $16 million provided by the federal government.

Timeline

Construction began in September 2001. The American Battle Monuments Co expects the memorial to open to the public in April 2004. The memorial will l on Saturday, May 29, 2004 -- Memorial Day Weekend.

WORLD WAR II MEMORIAL

What Do You Think?

Reflections on How to Memorialize War

USATODAY.com

By MARIA PUENTE, USA TODAY

WASHINGTON (May 20) — After the National World War II Memorial is dedicated May 29, it almost certainly will be judged a huge success, especially with war-era veterans. Hundreds of thousands of visitors are expected for the first weekend. But the granite-and-bronze monument on the National Mall already is a disappointment to many architects, historians and cultural critics.

Not that there's anything new about that. Every major memorial built here over the last 150 years has been accompanied by carping, controversy or calumny — sometimes all three — and even vandalism. There was no reason to expect the that World War II Memorial would escape America's usual quarreling about monuments.

The $175 million memorial, which just opened to the public, consists of a large, slightly sunken plaza on the Mall at the east end of the Reflecting Poc between the Lincoln Memorial and the Washington Monument, anchored by the restored

Rainbow Pool and fountains. It is enclosed by 56 columns, two arches, low walls, 4,000 g stars representing the dead, and huge bronze sculptures of eagles and wreaths.

The critics have not been kind. The words "bombastic," "ugly" and "mediocre" have been used. Also: "Like something the Nazis would have built." "A hodgepodge of cliché and So style pomposity." "An aesthetic disaster for Washington ... a bureaucrat's idea of classica grandeur ... at once fussy and desolate."

Based on the initial design, critics and pundits from The New York Times, Los Angeles Tir Detroit Free Press, Pittsburgh Post-Gazette, Architectural Record, The Nation, The Weekl Standard and The New Republic have panned it, while critics and columnists from the Ch Tribune and The Boston Globe have praised it. Globe critic Robert Campbell and Ada Lou Huxtable, formerly of The New York Times and widely regarded as the dean of American architectural critics, served on committees that helped select the design.

"Among the prestigious papers and journals and the best-known opinion makers, the memorial got a very critical assessment," says Nicolaus Mills, a professor of American stu at Sarah Lawrence College and author of Their Last Battle: The Fight for a National Worl War II Memorial. But if you count everything written or said about it by anyone over the few years, it has received a positive reception overall, says Mills, who has seen it and lik

But even some positive reviews skirt close to damning with faint praise. "Sensitively designed ... tells a complex story with straightforward conviction," Washington Post architecture critic Benjamin Forgey wrote after seeing it. "There is, to be sure, something bit stiff about the memorial's classically inspired design. A whiff of the academic informs' In any case, he concluded, the finished monument is much better than the original "swol design.

Whose Opinions Matter?

But whose opinions matter when it comes to public monuments? The combined judgment of scores of Washington politicians, bureaucrats and fine-arts czars — or the architecture critic of The New York Times? The acclaim from the expected 3.5 million visitors a year — or the editor of Architectural Record?

"I question whether... future generations, will be able to identify with it."
-James Mataya, Washingto resident

"It matters, because it's going to be around for a very long time, and after the veterans are gone, I question whether the rest of us, especially future generations, will be able to identify with it," says James Mataya, a lawyer who has lived in Washington long enough to know what he likes in public monuments. He says the memorial is "stark and ponderous."

But, Mills says, "50 years from now, people may not remember very much about" this debate.

Indeed, few people remember the titanic battles fought over national memorials — battle that date to George Washington himself. More recently, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial acclaimed by architects but initially denounced by some veterans as "a black gash of sha Now those same veterans embrace it, and it's among the most beloved monuments in th nation's capital.

The officials who built the World War II Memorial certainly aren't going to alter it now jus because a few critics don't like it. And you'd be hard-pressed to find many veterans who they aren't moved by it; their reactions range from tear-choked encomiums to indignant growls that it took so long.

Thumbs Down

"It lacks spirit."

Steveusafret Says:

"This memorial is long overdue. The generation that fought World War II is indeed 'the greatest generation.' They have earned it."

SalmDesign Says:

"Much like so many other Washington monuments and buildings, the World War II memorial is bland, uninspired design."

"It's beautiful. It fits ir very nicely on the Mall very well thought out, says Bill Richardson, 8 Warrenton, Va., a cav veteran originally from Colorado who served i Pacific. He and his wife Eva, 80, visited last w "Some say it's too big, World War II was our biggest war," she says can't ever be too big, because it symbolizes when our country last came together."

These are the commer that hearten Friedrich Florian, 72, the Austri born Rhode Island arc who was chosen to de the memorial in 1997. Although he is not surprised by negative reviews, it's no fun reading them, even while ba in the gratitude of veterans.

Besides, the critics are wrong, he says: "There is absolutely no doubt (the memorial) will stand the test of time."

Although a contemporary architect frequently working in the Modernist mode (skyscrape such as Ludwig Mies van der Rohe's Seagram building in New York), St. Florian believes Modernist movement is in decline. So he chose to reach back to the "timeless" language classical architecture, which already dominates in Washington but is "anathema" to many current architectural historians and critics. "It's a red flag to those who do not share my that modern architecture is coming to a closure," he says.

Still, he can't bear to hear the memorial disparaged as overbearing military triumphalism as "fascist" or "Nazi" architecture. He is sensitive to these allusions because, though neit he nor his father were Nazis, Austria was on the enemy side in the war.

"It's hurtful; it's very difficult to deal with," he says. "Classical architecture is an American tradition, and just because the Nazis perverted it is not a good enough reason to declare it untouchable."

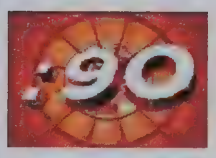
In some respects, reaction to the memorial reflects long-standing arguments about publi and monument-making in a democracy: abstract vs. realism, modern vs. antique, minimalism vs. baroque, explicit symbolism vs. implicit symbolism, heroic vs. elegiac. Abstract minimalism in architecture — as in, say, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial — can moving, but it's not necessarily useful in expressing heroism, Mills says.

"The Vietnam Veterans Memorial is not a heroic memorial. It's a tribute to the dead," he says. "You need continuity on the Mall and a language that will allow you to reflect on heroism and sacrifice."

'Lacks Spirit and Fervor'

The problem, says Robert Ivy, editor of Architectural Record, is that the memorial, while "perfectly pleasant," ought to be more than just a nice place to dangle your feet in a splashing fountain. In 2000, Ivy wrote an editorial criticizing the memorial's design, prompting a flood of letters from architects who agreed with him. Now that he has seen he's so disappointed he plans another essay about its failures for a future issue.



News in a Flash

"It lacks spirit and fervor," Ivy says. "The strug the war was a moral struggle, the greatest of ou time, and this reduces that to convenient symmetry."

But Mills believes St. Florian's choices are just ri for the Mall. "He's taken neoclassical symmetry balance and proportion and applied them to a modern setting. He's taken the familiar an given it a transcendent quality."

Even the memorial's fiercest critics do not reject it completely: Everyone agrees that restoration of the oval Rainbow Pool — on the site since 1912 but long neglected — is a g thing; the pool and fountain now form the centerpiece of the memorial.

But Judith Feldman, an architectural historian who heads the National Coalition to Save t Mall, which sought to block the memorial, says St. Florian has produced something more suitable for a military cemetery. In fact, his client, the American Battle Monuments Commission, is the agency that runs American military cemeteries abroad.

"From the fountain, you get a sense of joy and exuberance, which is the purpose of the Mall, which is about the optimism of American democracy," she says. "But it is surrounded by walls alluding to war, death and military triumph. ... I can live with a less-than-perfect

"In 100 years, I hope young Americans, wher memorial as long as it doesn't destroy another monument — the Mall — in the process."

Although Feldman's group lost the fight to move the memorial, the group's criticism and that of architectural critics helped force changes in St. Florian's original design: The memorial is smaller than he originally proposed and no longer includes a museum.

As the critics review the finished monument, will they drop their earlier objections? Don't count on it, Mills says. "They're wedded to their opinions; they may decide by virtue of consistency that they can't change their minds."

they stand in front of the wall of gold stars, they'll feel a shiver down the spine."
-Friedrich St. Florian, designer

St. Florian says there's a chance they'll come around, years down the road. But he's look even further than that.

"In 100 years, I hope young Americans, when they stand in front of the wall of gold star they'll feel a shiver down the spine. I hope they will think, 'When our ideals and values a challenged, we will do the same as these.' "

We took pictures on Memorial Day in Paducah of the crosses that volunteers put up in honor of the Veterans that have died. We noticed this one for William G. Kirk and thought you might like to have it. All of the flags were so pretty blowing in the wind. and it was quite an emotional feeling.

Hope you are doing well.

Face washing is an important part of taking care of your skin and does not have to be mundane. For example, the new Dove SkinVitalizer lifts away hard-to-remove makeup better than manual washing. Its gentle facial massaging invigorates and energizes skin, while its light exfoliating facial removes dead cells to expose younger, healthier-looking skin.

Memorial Day Ceremony Honors Sons And Daughters

Almost four million people visit Arlington National Cemetery annually. For some, it is a chance to walk among headstones that chronicle American history; for many, it is an opportunity to remember and honor the nation's military heroes; and for others, it is a place to say a last farewell during funeral services for a family member of friend. It is a stirring, one of a kind feeling.

But on Memorial Day, in small towns all across the country, a no less moving ceremony takes place to honor those sons and daughters who have died in war, or peacetime. It is a part of 'being' small town. Those are not just crosses in the courthouse lawn, they are people... some you knew first hand, some you knew through family members, but all the names are familiar to you. Again, it's part of being from a small town. It's one of the best parts. That we are able to gather freely and honor those who gave all or a part of themselves is a testament to their sacrifice.

The ceremony began with a welcome by newly elected Mayor Henry Michael. Afterwards an inspiring Pledge of Allegiance was led by Col. Ernie Isbell, U.S. Army retired.

Brother Carl Savage led the gathering in prayer just before the Placing of the Wreath by Nelda Hightower from the Ladies Auxiliary. Then,we were reminded one more time why we gather and why we are proud to be free, American, and from where we are as Patsy Holley, Nicole Thompson, and Che'rei Hicks belted out an impassioned, an rousing Star Spangled Banner.

Juan Hinojosa read from the honored 'Roll Call', and Col. Isbell's message of freedom and sacrifice left all present with hearts swollen with pride. He entertained those present with a short heart-felt patriotic speech and story of his days in Viet-Nam.

Once again Patsy Holley, Nicole Thompson, and Che'rei Hicks blessed us with their voices in God Bless America, and brother Carl Savage led in closing prayer.

The trio left us with one more number, America The Beautiful, then, as Taps played Old Glory was lowered.

Sixty or more guests attended the Memorial Service, and at least three families have family members currently serving in Iraq. Guests as far away as Tulsa, Oklahoma came to Paducah just for the ceremony. Frances Cranford and her daughter Priscilla Johnnie came from Tulsa. Frances was married to Coy Cranford of Paducah, who served in World War II in Germany.

It was a time of reflection and pride, and a little sadness. Hinojosa's reading of the Roll Call added 14 new names to the deceased.

God Bless America. The Paducah Post.

COTTLE/KING HISTORY

by Mary A. Clark

History and news items taken from Carmen Bennett's "Our Roots Grow Deep", King County Windmills & Barb Wire or past files of the Paducah Post.

(60 years ago - Cottle County history taken from Paducah Post files, Oct., 1947)

Cottle County Sheriff, Bill Kirk, issued a warning to motorists this week, and failure to obey could be costly. Considerable amount of reckless driving has been taking place, so Sheriff Kirk is urging motorists to obey stop signs, check their lights, drive carefully, and thus help avoid accidents.

The recently organized Paducah Dragons Mother's Club, will hold open house today at the City Hall. The purpose is to show the redecorated and refurnished lounge, which has been given over to the Dragons, to be used as a resting place Friday afternoon, prior to the games.

The Palace Theatre has been installing some new neon lighting this week, which has brightened the Eastside square considerably.

****

Approximately 1000 laborers are needed in Cottle County, at this time, to gather the cotton crop, County Agent G.J. Lane, stated this week.

A check with the six Paducah

(50 years ago - Cottle County history taken from Paducah Post files, Oct., 1957)

Membership in the Dragon Quarterback Club reached a total of 84 this week, still short of the 200 goal set by the organization at the beginning of the fiscal year.

The club films all the Dragon football games for the benefit of coaches and players.

The club recently received the projector and screen purchased for the school last week.

Paducah football fans will be able to keep up with the score, down, yards-to-go, and quarters at all Dragon home games the rest of this season. The Paducah Jaycees installed a new scoreboard in Dragon Stadium Tuesday night. The Jaycees obtained the scoreboard through the Paducah Coca-Cola Bottling and Ice Co.

It is hand operated with large numerals that can be easily seen from any point in the stadium. Jaycees Bob Scott and Jimmie James will control the scoreboard during the first half of Friday night's game, while Claude Estes and Ray Naron will take charge the second half.

OBITUARIES

JEWEL KIRK

Jewel Kirk, 95, died Saturday, June 4, 2005, in a Katy, Texas hospital. Graveside services will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, June 9, 2005, in Garden of Memories Cemetery of Paducah, under direction of Seigler Funeral Home.

Mrs. Kirk was 95.

Born in Paducah September 8, 1909 to Leslie and Epsie Applegate, she attended school in Paducah, and was a very active member of Missionary Baptist Church.

She married Bill Kirk in Ardmore, Oklahoma, and together they lived in Paducah until his death in 1982. She moved to Sealy, Texas seven years ago.

Mrs. Kirk is survived by three daughters, Ann Simmons, Sealy, Sherry Jones, Trophy Club, and Jackey Wygal, Hector, AR; one sister Cora Wiggins of Farmersville; 12 grandchildren, 24 great-grandchildren, and four great-great-grandchildren.

JEWEL AGNES KIRK

Jewel Agnes (Applegate) Kirk, age 95, passed away Saturday morning, June 04, 2005, at Katy, TX. She was born September 08, 1909, at Paducah, TX to Leslie Marion and Epsie Vester (Downing) Applegate. Jewel was raised and attended school in Paducah. She followed her Lord in baptism and was baptized at the First Baptist Church in Paducah.

On April 19, 1930, Jewel Applegate was joined in marriage to Mr. William G. (Bill) Kirk in Ardmore, OK. She lived in Paducah for 43 years and was a very active member of the Missionary Baptist Church.

She is survived by her daughters, Sherry Lavon Jones and husband, Ray, of Trophy Club, TX; Ann Simmons, Sealy, and son-in-law, Jack D. Simmons, Wharton, TX; Jackey Raye Wygal and husband, Tony, Hector, AR; one sister, Cora Ladell Wiggins, Midland, Tx.

Also grandchildren and spouses: Thresia and Bill Nabours, Bobby and Holly Strahan, Dianna and Vince Lombardi, Cathy and Steve Simpson, Judy and Mike Cary, Sandra Simmons, Pam and Daniel Killins, Roy Dale and Carol Wygal, Cheri McGee, Suzanne and Terry Perrault, Dawn Simmons, Kirk and Lisa Strahan; 24 great-grandchildren, 7 great-great-grandchildren and a number of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Leslie and Epsie Applegate; husband, William G. (Bill) Kirk; son, William G. Kirk; brothers, Nonnie Marion (Dick) Applegate, James Thomas (J.T.) Applegate, Theodore (Ted) Applegate, and sister, Gladys Pearl Williams.

She has resided in Sealy for the last several years with her daughter Ann, and was a member of the First Baptist Church.

The love she had for her family was boundless and unwavering. Even as she endured her own failing health with extraordinary grace and strength, she continued to think first not of herself but of those she held dear.

Funeral services were held June 06, 2005, at Knesek Funeral Chapel, Sealy, with Erwin Boyle officiating.

Graveside services were held Thursday, June 9, 2005, at 10 a.m. at the Garden of Memories Cemetery, Paducah, with Pastor Keith Prather, Missionary Baptist Church, officiating.

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me.
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil,
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever
~ ~ Amen

23rd Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures,
He leadeth me beside the still waters,
He restoreth my soul.
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
for thou art with me.
Thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies.
Thou anointest my head with oil,
My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy
shall follow me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the
house of the Lord forever
~ ~ Amen

August 28, 2006

Sherry,

I was able to find one of the pictures you mentioned, as for the discharge papers and other picture, I was not able to find them. I suggest calling the VA and requesting a copy of the discharge papers, I am certain we do not have them. As for the picture, I do not know where it is. When Grandma died I took everything off the walls in her room and left it with mom. I then repainted the room, removed grandma's bedroom suite and brought moms bedroom suite to the house and personalized the room as "moms room". Mom hung the pictures up she wanted, the two you mentioned were not hung back up; I don't know what she did with them. The picture I enclosed I had mistakenly put with my dad's stuff.

When you and I talked about me going through the pictures you gave me a list of what pictures you would like. I did the best I could in locating them for you, had you mentioned the other two at that time I would have kept my eye out for them. I went through roughly twenty-three boxes of pictures, which took a lot of time. I hope you appreciate what you did get.
